LOCKERS A RUM RULE ISSUE

FASCISTI OUST SELDERS FOR HIS TRIBUNE CABLES

Refuses to Glorify Mussolini.

George Seldes, the Rome correspondent of THE TRIBUNE, has been ordered out of Italy by the Mussolini government. He leaves tomorrow and is expected to arrive in New York on Thursday. This information is contained in a brief dispatch received from Mr. Seldes last night. It is the first direct communication from Mr. Seldes since he was ordered out of Italy. He had been in Rome for three days, except for a dispatch received on Saturday which either was so garbled or so stringently censored that its meaning was dark. THE TRIBUNE already had ordered a special emissary to Paris to Rome to investigate why Mr. Seldes was being held incommunicado.

On Friday and previously, the messages from Mr. Seldes to THE TRIBUNE showed that the Fascist foreign office was trying by insistent demands through the American ambassador, Henry P. Fletcher, to make Mr. Seldes leave Italy on the contention that he was depicting the Mussolini government in the "most possible light" and that he was presenting in his dispatches to the United States the views of the political antagonists of the dictator. No direct notice of expulsion was served on Mr. Seldes until he refused to make any move unless the government formally presented him personally with such a notice.

United on Free Press.
On Wednesday last a group of other American correspondents in Rome, including representatives of the New York World, Christian Science Monitor, Chicago Daily News, Philadelphia Public Ledger, and the United Press, signed a letter asking, through Ambassador Fletcher, for a conference with Under Secretary Grandi of the Fascist foreign office, to protest against the treatment of Mr. Seldes. The letter was signed by the representatives of the Associated Press and the New York Times, who are Italian subjects and not American citizens.

Protection of Writer.
Meanwhile THE TRIBUNE sent the following message to the state department in Washington:
Chicago, July 24.—To the Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.: We have reason to fear that in connection with the threatened expulsion or deportation of our correspondent, George Seldes, from Rome, Mr. Seldes' life or physical safety is imperiled. Mussolini's ministry in Rome has become disquieted with dispatches sent out by Mr. Seldes. Respectfully request you to American embassy to intercede to protect Mr. Seldes from threatened violence.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE.
Secretary Kellogg replied last night that Mr. Seldes has until Aug. 4 to leave Italy and that no violence had been done him.

Free Press or None.
THE TRIBUNE also wired its Washington bureau:
We understand the Fascists are bent on expelling Seldes from Italy. We are going to stand on Seldes and will continue to send another one of our correspondents to replace him in his place, but not if he is to be subject to censorship.

Can't you explain to the Italian ambassador that if we are excluded from Italy we will have to get all our news from hostile sources, the only sources all being dried up, we have been compelled to do that in the past.

Think we have more interest in news from Russia than any other country with a correspondent accused there, but we have nothing to do with the Soviet, though we will publish it if it is obtainable. We hate to see a situation like this.

Not First Effort.
This is not the first effort of the Italian foreign office to influence Mr. Seldes. Some time ago Signor Grandi threatened on page 12, column 2.

THE EPITAPH OF A CRUSADER

Listens In on Plot to Kidnap Miss Pickford

BY GEORGE SHAFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Los Angeles, Cal., July 27.—(Special.)—A crowded courtroom, tingling to decide for itself, firsthand, if there really was a scheme to kidnap Mary Pickford, today heard a sea of testimony to this effect from witnesses in the trial of Charles Stevens, "The Brains"; Fat Holcomb, "The Hard Guy"; and juvenile looking Billy Wood, "the sheik," on trial for the alleged felony.
The defense, with Associate Public Defender Frederick Vercoe as its spokesman, bitterly recalled efforts of Prosecutor H. S. G. McCarty to introduce evidence. Their wrangles several times sent the middle aged jury of ten men and three women (one man is an alternate juror, in case of another talebearer's sickness) from the courtroom.
Overhears Plotter's Talk.
The allegations between counsel delayed appearances of the first witnesses, M. J. Harney, a restaurant man, and L. C. Bickley, an oil filler. Both testified they were former roommates of some or all of the defendants, and had been their confidantes since 1922 in prospective kidnapping schemes to take Miss Pickford, Pola Negri, Jackie Coogan, and two grandchildren of E. L. Doheny.
Council bickered heatedly over the testimony of Glen G. Gravatt, short hand reporter employed by the police department. Gravatt testified that he listened in, through a mechanical device, and made observations, through holes bored in a hotel room door, upon conversations between Holcomb, Wood, Stevens, and one Louis, on the nights of last May 27, 28 and 29. The three defendants were arrested May 30.
Taken by Short-hand.
Gravatt took the stand and testified, according to admissible portions of his sheet of typewritten pages, as follows: "I first numbered the open I saw and heard, but later learned one of them was called Louis, another, 'Fat' (Holcomb), another, Billy (Wood); and another Steve (Stevens). They are the defendants here."
"Louis said, 'I'll get you a job,' and 'Fat' replied, 'I don't want a job. I've been planning on this for two years. I'll keep the party. I figured on you fellows to get her. We need some money to put it through.'"
"Louis then asked, 'What money will we need? Where will we get it?' and Fat said, 'Steve ought to get the money. He can't expect to get some-of the club, brought suit against the Chicago Daily News for articles published in that paper.

"Prior to this suit a reporter for the same paper made unsuccessful efforts to secure appointment to a political office. He said his failure to obtain the post at the door of an official of the club, who also is a newspaper man.

"Both the $100,000 suit and this reporter's disappointed ambition, I believe, are at the bottom of the unwarranted raid on the club."

Perhaps it may be informative to discover, even if in a superficial fashion, how the dry business is organized. It is that the long arm of the government reaches out from Washington and snatches one in the slack of the trousers and the struff of the neck when one is least suspecting the proximity of disaster.

Well, then, the master hand, newly appointed, is Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews. His position is that of second assistant secretary of the treasury. Inasmuch as the treasury department includes that of revenue and the revenues have traditionally been to do with breaches of the liquor laws, the present extension of its authority is sufficiently explained. Immediately subordinate to Andrews is Roy A. Haynes. Mr. Haynes until service was supreme. He retains his ancient title of commissioner of prohibition but he has been chucked down somewhat to permit the ascendancy of Andrews. Mr. Haynes' labors now are chiefly clerical.

And then Mr. Yellowley. Then comes the chief of general agents. This is Mr. C. Yellowley, a person of wide note in the business of putting down liquor. Under Mr. Yellowley there are the general agents apparently yearning for the suppression of the demon in the nine federal divisions. One of such divisions is that in which Chicago is situated. The division comprises Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana and the Michigan peninsula.

Now there is in charge of each division a division chief. The chief of this division is Capt. A. C. Townsend. And it had better explained that all these general agents are supposedly non-political; that is, appointments to places in this service are presumably not of a political patronage character. For example, Capt. Townsend is from Minneapolis and owes no political debts to local politicians. At least this explains the so-called ideal.

Goeth Where He Listeth. The division chief in this neighborhood has 52 men in his employ. They are at perfect liberty to make arrests whenever and wherever they may be. Pertinent to the issue may be interpolated the remarks of a bootlegger. "The general agent will raid," says he, "whenever the dyspepsia is bothering his innards or when he is drunk enough to want to start something."

Obviously, such suggestions are scorned in the federal dry corps and set down to malice. As in the case of I. Newton Perry. "The arrest was made by Joseph Allie," said Capt. Townsend, "a very reliable and conscientious agent. The fact that he suspected bootlegging and instead arrested a citizen transporting some personal liquor does not alter the fact of the defendant's guilt. Mr. Allie will, of course, be sustained in his action."

And that is certainly that. And More Agents. But to resume the bird's-eye view of the dry corps: The general agents' division may be regarded as the right hand of the general agent. The left hand at the left hand. The relationship has been mentioned in connection with the biblical reference to letting not one's right hand know what the left doeth, or words to that effect. It has been observed recently that the Bible is filled with sage observations. The left hand of the corps, as one may say, perhaps, is the state organization. It is state in name only. It is not controlled by the state but only a state organization geographically. The rank and file are thoroughly federal. All appointments are federal, power is federal, and military are federal. But there is a local interest. It is that all officials and agents are the appointees of local political leaders. This system has been described as a concession to state-federal patronage.

Also Maj. Percy Owen. The state director is Maj. Percy Owen. The major just now is under indictment for grafting in the distribution of sacramental wine. Yesterday he appeared in the federal building and gave bonds for his appearance. In the meantime he retains his position, though under suspension. But it was announced that this will not be for long.

Right here comes another Washington by-product. This is the general field superintendent. He is D. E. Ewing. It is his business to keep advised. He ranks equally with the state director. He comes from Washington and goes there with the advice he gets. Immediately subordinate to the state director but in no wise related to the general field superintendent is the chief enforcement officer for Illinois. This is Charles W. Vursell. It is his business to enforce the law. It is the business of the director to manage the clerical side; grant permits, issue orders and what not. Mr. Vursell has five groups of field agents: two in Chicago, one in Decatur, one in East St. Louis and one in Peoria. Sixty agents are divided into these squads.

And Still Another Set. This would seem almost enough, but there are more. One more unit and the machine is operating. This is the special intelligence unit under command of A. P. Madden. The members of this unit are called under cover names because they frequently are changed and almost always sent direct from Washington to perform a specific lot of ferreting, succeeding in which their usefulness is temporarily ended and they go back to Washington to await summons into another field. Generally speaking, the business of the special unit is to catch the agents.

Thus it becomes a ring-around-the-rose. At least this expression came from the lips of the bootlegger quoted above.

"The general agents tell a bootlegger he can go ahead, and the state agents come along and kick him over. Or the state agents give a guy a break for a consideration, and the general agents get jealous and roust him. Then the special unit comes along and grab both the general agent and the state agent."

Nobody Knows Who Ordered Dry Raid on Fish Fans' Craft

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(Special.)—Prohibition enforcement officials declared today that Saturday's raid on the Fish Fans' club in Lincoln park, Chicago, admittedly directed from Washington, did not conflict with the new policy of the Coolidge administration in letting the states and the cities perform their own police duties.

But they make no effort to make the new policy cover the case of I. Newton Perry, head of a Chicago bond house, who was stopped while traveling in his automobile and thrown into jail at Michigan City, Ind. It was made clear that the arrest of Mr. Perry was not ordered from Washington and that no report of the case has been received.

It was plainly stated that it was not the intention of the federal government to have its agents stop and search private vehicles. Interference in liquor cases or invade homes except in extraordinary cases where a question of law enforcement was of sufficient importance to warrant it.

Will Aim at Sources. It had been announced by spokesmen for the President and by Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews when he assumed his duties as federal marshal of the prohibition forces that the federal agents hereafter would devote their attention to stopping the liquor at its source rather than in assuming the powers of policemen in the states.

It was made known that the President felt that, from a standpoint of economy, if from nothing else, the federal government should not be called upon to do police duty. Functions, it was pointed out, should be performed by the cities and states.

In other words they should be left to keep a dry or wet house as they chose, provided the federal laws were not flaunted to such an extent as to make of any city or state public nuisance.

The federal prohibition chiefs, it was pointed out, were to handle a smaller but more efficient force, which should devote its time to stopping the manufacture and importation of liquor and to handle only the larger conspiracy cases, rather than to concern itself with possession and minor sales.

Chicago Raid a Surprise. Accordingly it was with some surprise that news of the activities in Chicago were received here. Prohibition officials made it clear, however, that the new policy does not necessarily mean that a prohibition agent is to walk by a place where "he knows Liquor is being sold, with his eyes shut."

E. C. Yellowley, chief of the general prohibition agents, admitted that he had sent some men from here to participate in the raid on the Fish Fans' club under Capt. Townsend, the division chief. Asked who had given him his orders, he said that it was not the policy of the bureau to give out the source of evidence.

"If you mean who sent the men out there, why, I did," he said. "Sometimes I receive instructions from Commissioner Blair, sometimes from Gen. Andrews, sometimes from Director Haynes. All I can say in this case is that evidence was furnished me that this place in Chicago was a public nuisance. It was a violation of the law and we propose to make arrests wherever evidence is presented that the law is being violated."

Nobody Seams to Know. Press dispatches saying that the raid on the Fish Fans' club had come direct from Gen. Andrews' office, could not be verified there. It was pointed out that the "old prohibition force is still working anyway," and that it will not be until after Oct. 15 that the complete reorganization will have been effected and the entire new policy placed in operation.

"I haven't received an official report on the Fish Fans' club raid as yet and know only what I have read in the papers," Yellowley said. "I have received no word of the arrest of Mr. Perry. That arrest evidently was made by local agents."

At Gen. Andrews' office it was stated that arrests such as a raid on the Fish Fans' club would not be made by federal agents but would be made by state or local police. "The fact that the prohibition forces are devoting their attention mainly to conspiracy cases and stopping liquor at its source does not necessarily mean that they will not make arrests in other cases when their attention is called to law violations," it was said. "The chief reason for not performing police duties is the lack of funds and a force of sufficient size to undertake such a task."

It is possible that the men who arrested Mr. Perry had reason to believe they would make a much greater capture than they did. Ordinarily it would not be the policy to stop a private automobile and search his car. Hip liquor cases are not the ones the government is after, but you can't expect a prohibition agent to walk past a place which he knows is violating the law and keep his eyes shut and do nothing."

the bootlegger has to find a new friend. They're always going round and round and round."

Dry Agent Must Dry Something. So the bootlegger is asked a question: "What might be the object in raiding a lot of private clubs in Cook county and bothering citizens going about their business?"

"Well," says the bootlegger, "a dry agent, first of all, has to be a dry agent. If he doesn't do some drying he'll get the air. Now, he can't make any money closing up his friends. So he lets his friends run-run breweries, sacramental wine joints, alcohol factories, or what have you. But he must have a record of things done. Wouldn't

It is a well known fact to show how he had jammed up a dozen dangerous golf clubs? I ask you?"

Still there is the reassurance from Washington that state police powers are not to be disturbed. And still the Fish Fans club was raided and Mr. Perry, who was driving with three friends to his summer home in Michigan, was arrested without previous complaint, without a warrant and without notice. Three points of liquor were found and he was locked up over night.

It may relieve things for Mr. Perry to say that, according to federal building advice, first offenders in the matter of transporting usually are fined. It also was said yesterday that the dry agents are not seriously contemplating sending Mr. Perry back to Indiana where the constables may sink their teeth in him.

Has Wide Discretion. Now as to the evidence against clubs should the agents decide to take up golf. For a time small warrants were issued. That is, if the smell of a dry agent's hootch a warrant would be issued on his information to this effect. But now even the smell is not so necessary. Discretionary powers are extensive. If in the discretion of an agent it seems advisable to knock over what may be a nuisance or a tipping place, over it goes. Thus the discretion of an agent may pick out any club from Shore Acres to Olympia Fields.

Two handy methods thus come into play, the grab and the discretionary power with or without the sniff. In either event a padlock on the old clubhouse may result.

Different Next Autumn. After Oct. 15 there will be no more of the present prohibition system as described above. There will be only one kind of agent. He will be recruited from Washington through the division investigators.

"Which," said the above quoted bootlegger, "will be sweet because there won't be a half a dozen corps of agents all trying to kick each other's games over. We'll know whom to trust and we'll all understand each other. We do not view the situation with alarm. Only the innocent bystander need tie his hat on. He'll get the fast ride."

Which is in spite of reassurances from Washington that the government does not intend to interfere with citizens.

Of course some of the foregoing may have hinted at the presence of liquor in the club lockers. Inquiries of some of the club managers brought answers which do not sustain that view.

At Indian Hill, where there is a lady manager, it was explained that liquor is not permitted. The manager of Westmoreland invited the government to investigate; rules against liquor, said he. "An indignant woman manager at Riverside said: 'This is a strictly temperance club.'"

At the Skokie club it was said to be difficult for the management to keep track of what was in the lockers, shoes and knickers and such like. As not. Col. C. T. Holden, of Olympia Fields, said they didn't frisk the members to see if they had anything on the hip, but would welcome dry agents.

Lockers for Golf Clothes. And E. G. Lee, manager at Onondaga, said that generally speaking the lockers were for golf outfits and one thing and another.

Out at Shore Acres it was said that members with booze are sternly reprimanded. At Flossmoor, Manager Frank Brunner said even carbonated water was out and he hadn't seen any liquor.

Ravished managers said the young bloods had been curbed but the old boys were hard to manage; liked their toddy. "In fact," said the speaker, "it would take a dry squad to stop the old heads."

STEAMER DROPS OFF RUM CARGO AND IS SEIZED

New York, July 27.—(AP)—The 3,600-ton steamship Augusta was captured by customs officers in the Hudson river off Dyckman street today after the ship had run the gauntlet of the rum blockade and her crew had unloaded and disposed of a cargo of liquor worth $250,000, at bootleg prices, leaving only 15 bottles aboard.

The crew of 24 men was arrested, and the captain admitted having turned the liquor cargo over to retailers for distribution.

This is the first known case since the coast guard blockade started that a ship of such size has successfully eluded the rum chasers and slipped into the harbor. Customs officials said that the operations of the Augusta were the most daring in the history of the customs and prohibition laws.

236 Scofflaws Fined in One Day in N. Y. Court. New York, July 27.—(AP)—Two hundred and thirty-six persons today pleaded guilty to various violations of the prohibition laws before Judge Garvin and were fined amounts ranging from $20 to $500. The total amount collected was $18,075. United States Attorney Buckner had arranged what he called a "bargain day" session of court.

ASK EVOLUTION SUIT DISMISSED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—Formal motions for dismissal of the Washington evolution case were filed in the District of Columbia supreme court today by the United States government and Washington city authorities.

They will be presented to Justice Bigelow tomorrow when the court called up the injunction proceedings instituted by Loren H. Wittner, a government employe, to stop payment of salaries to two Washington city school officials on the ground that they permit the teaching in the public schools here of matter in "disrespect for the holy Bible."

Appearing for Frank White, treasurer of the United States, one of the defendants in Wittner's suit, District Attorney Gordon asked dismissal on several grounds, the chief of which are that Wittner as a taxpayer has no standing in court and that the United States government cannot be sued without its consent.

Corporation Counsel Stevens, for the Washington city authorities, declared that the complaint fails to set forth any specific facts as to the teaching of anything in disrespect of the Bible.

The court was asked to set Friday as the date for hearing on the motion and this probably will postpone the hearing on Wittner's complaint.

AUSTRALIA GIVES U. S. FLEET HEADS OFFICIAL FETE

Premier Stresses Amity of British Peoples.

MELBOURNE, Australia, July 27.—Premier Bruce today gave the reception which has been given you will have convinced you that the feeling of good will and amity which Australia have toward your great country is not a sentiment which we venture to hope and believe are reciprocated by the American people.

This was the keynote of a speech given by Prime Minister Bruce at a dinner given by the commonwealth government in honor of the command-in-chief and senior officers of the United States fleet tonight. It found a ready response in Admiral Coad's reply in which he said: "Our people who are now visiting your country will go home with a new grand commonwealth."

The dinner was given in the house of the Queen's hall of the federal parliament. The hosts included Premier Bruce, all the cabinet members and various parliamentary leaders. The dinner marked the official of the fleet's reception.

"Demonstration of Peace." Premier Bruce's address, in part, followed: "We were inspired last Thursday when we witnessed the imposing spectacle of the great fleet of the United States entering our port, eloquently symbolical of the might and power of your great republic. But your visit was a demonstration of naval power, a demonstration of peace and good will. The great bulwarks of international understanding are friendship, good will, and greater knowledge. As we learn to know each other and as mutual intercourse becomes more frequent, misunderstanding and disappear and sympathies are extended."

Prime Minister Bruce told of receiving a letter after he had dispatched an independence day message to Admiral Coad on July 4, stating that the anniversary of independence would never be recognized by a citizen of the British empire. He went on to say that the British empire of today is based upon all the great principles that the American colonists stood for in their historical struggle.

"Bound by Strong Ties." Continuing this Premier Bruce said the first task is maintenance of peace between the British empire and America. "We are one in blood, one in language and one in liberty," he said, "bound together not only by ties of history and heritage of race but by ties of mutual affection and respect, and even two such bonds, which will be inevitably differences of opinion, but we have shown in the past that these differences can be amicably settled."

MISS VANDERBILT OPERATED ON THIS MORNING

Newport, R. I., July 27.—[Special.]—Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt will be operated on for appendicitis tomorrow morning at Roseland, the Thayer estate where her sister, Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, was married on Saturday.

The decision to perform the operation was made this afternoon after a consultation between Dr. Joseph A. Blake of New York, who has come here at the request of Miss Vanderbilt's mother, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt II, and Dr. Charles W. Stewart, of this city, who has been attending Miss Vanderbilt.

The attack is described as slight but as the inflammation persists it was deemed best to operate. The operation will be performed by Dr. Blake assisted by Dr. Stewart.

Miss Vanderbilt became ill on Friday night but on Saturday was able to attend and participate in the wedding of her sister to Frederic Cameron Church Jr. Since then she has spent much of her time in bed.

When Miss Consuelo's illness will cause Mr. and Mrs. Church to curtail their honeymoon and return to Newport was not known tonight.

GERMANS STONE YANK TOURISTS, ONE A WOMAN

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] BERLIN, July 27.—Crumbler Hendon, 22 years old, of Redbank, N. J., and Mrs. T. W. Witherspoon, 6203 St. George's avenue, New Orleans, were badly beaten by a mob of Germans following a dispute with a garage man at Pustenberg.

The dispute began when Mrs. Witherspoon refused to pay a bill demanded by the garage man for work he had not done. A crowd dragged the American woman from her car. She was rescued by Hendon, who used a wrench as a weapon.

Later two police officers compelled Hendon to pay the garage man $7. and then they withdrew. A mob gathered again and attacked the two Americans with stones and sticks with no interference from the police. Both were badly beaten. Mrs. Witherspoon has cancelled her tour through Germany and will sail from England for home early in August. She has complained to the American consul.

WIFE DIVORCES EARL; CHARGES 'OTHER WOMAN'

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] LONDON, July 27.—Another aristocratic romance was smashed on the rocks of scandal today when the Countess of Essex was granted an absolute divorce from the Earl of Essex on grounds of his misconduct with an unidentified woman. An employee of the Charing Cross hotel testified that the Earl spent the night there on March 26 with a woman who was not the countess. The couple were married in September, 1905, and a boy was born in October, 1906. The Earl's farewell letter announcing that a separation was the best thing for both was submitted as the principal evidence.

SCOTT STARTS FINAL BATTLE NEXT TUESDAY

Judge Gives Day to Pick Jury on Sanity.

Just one week from this morning Russell T. Scott must face the jury that will decide whether he is sane enough to be hanged for the murder of Joseph Maurer, drug clerk, Judge Joseph B. David decreed yesterday in the first inning of Scott's insanity fight to cheat the gallows.

The insanity hearing granted to Scott by Judge David four hours before he was to have been hanged last Friday morning was Scott's third escape from the noose by a margin of a few hours. The hearing opened Monday morning, and since the court warned yesterday that he will allow the defense and state only one day in which to choose a jury to determine the condition of Scott's mind, the condemned man starts his last fight for life on Tuesday morning.

To Asylum or to Noose. If the jury decides Scott is insane he will be sent to the Chester asylum. If the decision is that he is sane, an immediate date for his execution will be set by the court.

Even should Scott be sent to the asylum, the law says that he may be hanged at any time when it shall be proved that he has recovered his reason.

In the hearing yesterday both William Scott Stewart, who in getting the insanity trial for Scott saved him at the last minute, and Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman, who prosecuted, were denied motions. Mr. Gorman demanded an immediate hearing. Judge David refused, saying he has other duties for the next week, and set the case for the first time he has at his disposal.

List of Venire Denied Stewart. Attorney Stewart demanded a list of the 100 veniremen the court said would be called to choose a jury from. Judge David denied him this.

"This is a civil hearing," the judge ruled. "You are not entitled to any list and you shall not have it."

The court let it be known that he was angered at what he called attempts by the lawyers on both sides to "try the case in the newspapers." He warned both state and defense to make no further comments, saying such comments would be considered contempt of court and punished as such.

Russell Scott was examined yesterday by the first mental expert who will testify in his behalf at the trial, Dr. Orlando P. Scott. The physician was closeted with the doomed man for more than two hours. His findings were kept secret by Attorney Stewart.

BALDWIN MOVES TO AVERT STRIKE IN COAL MINES

Report Employers Ready to Soften Terms.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] LONDON, July 27.—It is now believed that the danger of an immediate coal strike in England is over. Prime Minister Baldwin told a deputation of the trade union today that he had taken personal charge of the negotiations and would confer with the mine owners tomorrow, prior to the joint meeting of the miners and owners Wednesday. There is little doubt that a settlement will be obtained through the offer by the government of some form of temporary subsidy.

The situation is still serious, as the roadroaders and transport men have agreed not to carry coal if the miners strike, and the entire trade union movement is pledged to aid the miners. King George, who left today for the Goodwood racing meet, is kept hourly in touch with the developments.

Ministers Ready to Act. LONDON, July 27.—[AP.]—Proof of the government's determination to leave nothing undone to bring about a peace in the mining dispute, which threatens a serious industrial tie up, was afforded today when, after conferring with a trade union committee, Premier Baldwin decided to take a leading role in the negotiations. The ministers will be in a sort of permanent session throughout the week, ready at any moment to deal with the trouble.

It is unofficially stated that the mine owners now will consent to withdraw their notices of the termination of the existing agreement and their new wage proposals.

The cabinet will hold a special meeting tomorrow to draft a plan for dealing with the problem.

74,000 Miners Strike. BERLIN, July 27.—[U.N.]—Industry in the Saar valley has been paralyzed by the action of 74,000 coal miners, who struck today. A sympathy strike by metal workers has brought all industrial activity in that region to a standstill.

ACCUSE JUDGES OF ABUSING LAW ON JAIL RELEASE

City Lawyer Rules on Bridewell Issue.

Some Municipal court judges, in the opinion of Assistant Corporation Counsel Leon Hornstein, have been abusing and abusing the law by releasing violators of city ordinances from the House of Correction before the expiration of their sentences.

The opinion was given yesterday to Richey V. Graham, Bridewell superintendent, who asked for a ruling on what to do when he receives such an order from a judge. He said the orders have been frequent and that he has been obeying them.

Court Loses Jurisdiction. "In cases of crimes and misdemeanors the court loses jurisdiction when the defendant has been sentenced and committed to custody," Mr. Hornstein said. "Whether the same rule applies in the case of violation of a city ordinance has not been passed on by the Supreme court. The courts have held that prosecutions for violation of city ordinances are civil proceedings."

The theory of the law, however, in his opinion, is the same, namely, that a judge cannot reopen a case when a sentence has once begun for the nonpayment of fines. The only way a prisoner of this kind can be released is by payment of the fine or through a pauper's petition. It frequently occurs that a person will be fined $10 for violation of a city ordinance, and after refusing to pay the fine and going to the Bridewell, will pay a lawyer $25 to get him out on a pauper's petition.

The Real Issue. "But the question here is whether a judge has the right to send a man to the house of correction for nonpayment of fines for violation of a city ordinance and then order the Bridewell superintendent to release him before the sentence is completed. It is up to the Supreme court to decide, but I believe the theory of the law is the same as it is in cases of crimes and misdemeanors."

Superintendent Graham did not name any of the judges but said the release orders from the Municipal court were frequent.

In criminal cases, Mr. Hornstein pointed out, only the governor can terminate a sentence before completion.

ANSWER TO SON OF DARWIN JUST MADE BY BRYANBible Is Good Enough for Me, Is Its Title

New York, July 27.—(AP)—William Jennings Bryan's last formal utterance on evolution, entitled "The Bible Is Good Enough for Me," appears in the current issue of Collier's Weekly as an answer to claims for evolution made in the previous issue by Leonard Darwin, son of Charles Darwin.

"The theory of evolution," Mr. Bryan says, "is dangerous to society. When one considers man but a 'bundle of characteristics' inherited from brute ancestors, as many evolutionists do, it not only degrades man, the greatest work of the Almighty, but it paralyzes all efforts at reform."

"Followers of Darwin have carried this doctrine so far as to declare that pity and sympathy, the greatest of moral forces, are unreasonably and interfere with the coming of their merciless 'superman.' Few people who profess to believe in evolution have never read Darwin."

As He Argues It.
"All Darwinians are prone to underestimate the relative importance of environment. To argue that descendants inherit intelligence because of physical laws is to ignore the fact that intelligent people surround their children with an environment that cultivates intellectual ideals and furnishes educational opportunities to the children. There is proof in abundance to support the proposition that a child born into a home where neither parent can read or write may, in spite of such an inheritance, rise to intellectual heights, provided the environment is favorable."

GERMANY MOURNS FOR BRYAN, ITS FRIEND IN THE DARKEST HOUR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BERLIN, July 27.—The death of William Jennings Bryan yesterday has caused the German press to forget for a minute his connection with the much ridiculed "Scopes trial" in Dayton, Tenn., to recall his career as a statesman. The national papers are particularly friendly in their comment, while official circles echo these sentiments.

President Paul von Hindenburg told the Reichstag today: "We learn with sincere regret of the sudden death of Mr. Bryan, one of the most remarkable figures in the political world. Germany especially regrets his passing, since he was one of the few whose efforts during and after the war were bent toward lasting peace. His friendly attitude during our darkest days was an inspiration. He hated war and loved peace. We have lost a friend. We extend our sympathy to his family."

Heights, provided the environment is favorable.

"Most of our great men in the United States come from the common people and it is the reflection on the parent to say that a child surpasses him in breadth of mental vision or in depth of intellectual enthusiasm."

How He Disproves Darwin.
"And this is not an evolution because we have examples of ignorant children who were the descendants of intelligent parents. They simply lack the ambition and ideals that inspired industry. This is not a defect that comes in the blood, but is the result of bad companions or bad habits."

"Nothing could be more disastrous to the race than to have parents act according to this philosophy of evolution. If every parent, who, lacking education, attributed it to his inherited defect and believed that his children would inherit that defect, it would chill the spirit which has led parents to devote themselves to the improvement of their children."

BRYAN BELIEVED
GOD COULD TALK
DIRECT TO MANHis Last Sunday School
Lesson Made Public.

New York, July 27.—William Jennings Bryan's last written appeal, contained in his Sunday school lesson which will not be released until Aug. 15, declared a lasting belief that a supernatural power governs the world—a power that can communicate instructions to man.

Through the courtesy of the Republic syndicate which distributed Bryan's Sunday school lessons to a large number of newspapers, the United Press is enabled to announce exclusively the topic of Bryan's last article. It is a stirring appeal for the old faith, entitled, "A Macedonian Call."

Bryan harkens back to the vision of Paul at Troas (Acts 16:9) when, in company with Silas and Timothy, he received a divine summons to go to Macedonia and preach.

Bryan says three lessons in the call: 1. That there was a supernatural power that governed the world and could transmit messages to mortals. 2. That there always were fields in which the gospel should be preached. 3. That God works through men to save the world.

Bryan pointed out that the religion of Christ had made a great appeal to women. "It has lifted women to a higher plane and more fully recognized her inalienable right to full companionship with men," he stated.

The text of the lesson was taken from Acts 16:9.

KELLOGG OFFICIALLY
ANNOUNCES DEATH
OF GREAT COMMONER

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—By direction of President Coolidge, Secretary Kellogg today formally announced for the government the death of William Jennings Bryan. The announcement follows:

"By direction of the President the undersigned is charged with the sad duty of announcing the death on July 26, 1926, at Dayton, Tenn., of William Jennings Bryan, a distinguished citizen of the United States, formerly a representative in congress from the state of Nebraska, a colonel in the Spanish-American war, and secretary of state."

"In all these capacities his services were characterized by a faithfulness to duty and a devotion to public interest. His private life was one of the emulation of all American citizens. Three times the nominee of a great political party, his death will be especially mourned by a large personal following who held him in affectionate esteem."

"As a testimony of this respect, it is ordered by the President that the national flag be displayed at half staff on the national buildings at Washington on the date of the funeral."

"FRANK E. KELLOGG."

My Opponent—and Friend,
Taft Wires Mrs. Bryan

Dayton, Tenn., July 27.—The following telegram was received by Mrs. William Jennings Bryan today from William H. Taft, chief justice of the United States:

"Mrs. Taft and I extend to you our heartfelt sympathy. Mr. Bryan and I were long time friends, though usually opposed on the issues of the day. He will be a most notable figure in our political history. He has had a remarkable personal following because they believed in him, his patriotism, and his political views and who will greatly miss his courage and leadership."

earthly journey. She urged that all ostentation and show be avoided.

"We are simple people," she said, "and we want all arrangements simply made."

W. E. Thompson, secretary to Mr. Bryan and of recent months his constant companion, reached Dayton tonight from Virginia. He immediately assumed many of the burdens which the widow has been bearing.

Dayton's flag was flown at half staff today and Dayton merchants displayed with the customary business until the late afternoon. Pasted on the front windows of Robinson's drug store, a proclamation by the mayor said:

"He fell while in line of duty to the cause dearest to his heart."

"All Dayton mourns his untimely death."

Burial in Arlington.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(Special)—While the detailed arrangements for the funeral of William Jennings Bryan have not been received here, war department officials today went ahead with plans for burial in the National cemetery at Arlington.

Ben G. Davis, former private secretary to Mr. Bryan and chief clerk of the state department during Mr. Bryan's incumbency of that portfolio, accompanied Brig. Gen. John Bellinger, acting quartermaster general, to Arlington and, together, they agreed on a site on the brow of the highest hill overlooking the Lee mansion.

Hearing in mind the probable desire of Mrs. Bryan to be buried beside her husband, Mr. Davis picked out a double site—lots 3118 and 3119—not far from the famous Dwyer mansion and close to the tomb of Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles.

These Lovely Cemetery.

"Mr. Bryan's choice of Arlington was due to two things," Mr. Davis said. "He wanted to be close to the capital city and he thought Arlington was the most beautiful cemetery in the world."

Mr. Bryan's final resting place will be close to a section occupied by the bodies of those who fell in the world war, our entrance into which Mr. Bryan opposed with much bitterness that he resigned as secretary of state rather than have an official part in it. Mr. Davis said he did not believe Mrs. Bryan and her son would desire any military pomp at the funeral.

"Mr. Bryan was a man of peace," he said, "and I do not think Mrs. Bryan would want the funeral to be of a military character further than to have the body borne on an artillery caisson and, possibly, escorted by a small detail."

COOLIDGE SENDS EULOGY OF BRYAN TO HIS WIDOW

Sense of Personal Loss
Is Mine, He Telegraphs.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Swampscott, Mass., July 27.—(Special.)—President Coolidge sent to Mrs. William Jennings Bryan today, a telegram of condolence in which he eulogized her late husband as the champion of moral reforms and as one who was representative of the search for purity in our political life.

The President and Mr. Bryan differed on almost every political question of importance, yet they had a sincere respect and admiration for each other. Mr. Bryan never failed, when in Washington, to call at the White House to pay his respects to the President; and it was only a few weeks before they came to Swampscott that he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge at luncheon.

Won by Bryan's Charm.
Mr. Coolidge remarked today on the great charm of Mr. Bryan as a conversationalist in such informal meetings and told of the pleasure and interest with which he listened to Mr. Bryan's reminiscences of men and events figuring in his long political career.

The President's telegram to Mrs. Bryan follows:
"The sudden death of Mr. Bryan brought a sense of personal loss to Mrs. Coolidge and myself. It was only the other day that he had been our guest at the White House. We wish to extend to you and your family our most heartfelt sympathy."

Mr. Bryan has been a prominent figure in public affairs for a third of a century. He has been a leader in the advocacy of many moral reforms and was representative of the effort for purity in our political life. He was endowed with the great gift of eloquence.

Acclaims His Sincerity.
The sincerity of his motives was beyond dispute. He was three times chosen the head of a great political party and held the exalted office of secretary of state. His career is another example of what American opportunity affords to those who have the will and industry to apply themselves.

"It would be difficult to find among his contemporaries any one with so large a circle of friends and acquaintances who had so generously bestowed upon him their esteem and confidence. I trust that you may be given great consolation in remembering all his worth and in the abiding faith that a divine Providence has ordered all things well."

The political effect of the death of Mr. Bryan was a universal topic of conversation today wherever politiclans gathered, and opinions expressed took a wide range.

In this part of the country, where the Democratic party is preponderantly conservative and wet and long out of sympathy with the leadership of Mr. Bryan, there appears to be a widespread view that his death will accelerate the disintegration of the progressive and dry element of the party.

William G. McAdoo is now looked on as the logical leader of this wing, but it is doubted that he can revive the drooping fortunes of the progressive faction in its western stronghold, where in many states the Democratic party in the last presidential election almost ceased to exist.

With the persuasive and eloquent orator and shrewd political tactician gone, a lesser leader, it is felt, will be overridden roughshod by the eastern conservatives in the next party battle.

There will be a trial of strength at no distant date between the two factions, probably over the reorganization of the Democratic national committee. The conservative and wet forces of the east and middle west will be led by Al Smith and George Brennan, while the progressive and dry Democrats of the far west and the south will appear, presumably, under the leadership of Mr. McAdoo. It looks now as if the next Democratic national convention will be another battle between Smith and McAdoo for the nomination.

May Bring Party Harmony.

A different view, held by many Democrats, is that the removal of Mr. Bryan from the scene will result eventually in restoring party harmony. The conservatism of the Coolidge administration, it is contended, will compel the Democrats to adopt a strongly progressive attitude in the next election.

TAKES POISON AFTER QUARREL.
Following a fight yesterday with her husband, R. D. Dupuis, a chiropractor, at their home, 1813 Washington boulevard, Delmar Dupuis, 18 years old, swallowed poison. She was revived by Dr. Joergen, 1805 Jackson boulevard.

CHICAGO SENDS SYMPATHY AND PRAISES BRYAN

Notables Laud Courage, Ability, Sincerity.

Sometimes doubting his beliefs and opinions, but never questioning his honesty of purpose and sincerity, and loving him for those virtues, Chicagoans held a deep admiration, they demonstrated yesterday, for Illinois' native son, William Jennings Bryan.

Men and women prominent in business and public affairs were eager to pay tribute.

Dever Sends City's Sympathy.
Mayor Dever telegraphed Chicago's sympathy to Mr. Bryan's widow at Dayton, Tenn.

"The people of Chicago were profoundly shocked by the news of the death of your distinguished husband. Chicago will revere his memory. He was an outstanding influence for moral, political, and social good. The nation has lost a great leader. The people of Chicago extend to you and your family their sympathy."

"I have always respected Mr. Bryan as one of the leading independent thinkers of the Democratic party," said Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board and not a dry. "I feel that the party has a great loss in his death, and that one of the outstanding leaders has departed from our midst. His co-workers in the Democratic ranks will reverse his memory for generations to come."

Mrs. Fairbank's Views.
Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Democratic woman leader, said: "This marks the passing of an important and picturesque figure in the Democratic party. Every one must feel as I do about the great commoner. He was a man whose personal integrity and good intentions never were questioned. He was a survivor of a past age in American politics."

Though a political opponent of Bryan, Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman had keen admiration for Bryan's ability as a statesman.

"Bryan was a student of the old school," Coroner Oscar Wolf said. "His devotion to his religious faith and to his country was gained by none."

Banker Praises Ability.
"Whether we agreed with Mr. Bryan or not," George M. Reynolds said, "we liked and respected him, because he was always ready to support his views with forceful and eloquent argument. The nation always mourns the loss of a man like Mr. Bryan."

"Engaged as he was in his great struggle for the Bible as he interpreted it, it is unfortunate that the vital issues involved must now be settled without his energetic counsel," County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer said.

TURN FIRST DIRT ON NEW TRAFFIC SIGNALS IN LOOP

Mayor Dever yesterday turned the first spadeful of dirt in the installation of the traffic signal light system in the loop. The work was begun at La Salle and Van Buren streets.

Commissioner of Public Works A. A. Sprague, Commissioner of Gas and Electricity John T. Miller and Chief of Police Collins attended the ceremony. The lights, similar to those in use on the boulevard systems, will be installed at fifty-nine street intersections in the downtown district at a cost of approximately $200,000. The job will be completed in about ninety days, Commissioner Miller said.

The signal light system is expected not only to speed up the movement of traffic in the loop district but, according to Chief Collins, will permit the traffic to be handled by one-half or one-third the number of traffic policemen now used.

BRITISH HOLD ON MEDITERRANEAN IS CHAFING ITALY

Mussolini's Aid Asserts It Is a Grave Menace.

Williamstown, Mass., July 27.—(AP)—Britain's hold on the Mediterranean sea is endangering the life of Italy, Count Antonio Cippico, Italian Fascist senator, said tonight in a lecture at the Institute of Politics here.

Picturing his country as dependent for her existence on the good will of those holding Gibraltar and the Suez canal, Count Cippico urged that "steps be taken in time to secure a just settlement between civilized nations."

"Today the Mediterranean has reacquired its former importance," he said. "With the Suez canal more than ever it is the imperial road which leads from the Atlantic to India, East Africa and Australia. Its gates are hermetically closed by a nation whose shores are not bathed by its waters."

Fate of Wilson's Ideal. "It is all very well to talk of perpetual and universal peace, especially when such talk comes from the politicians of that great nation. The fact remains that one of the fourteen articles, that dealing with the freedom of the seas, founded—and few can say how—in the Atlantic."

"Had it been candidly accepted by all the victorious nations, the recent peace of Versailles would have assumed a different aspect. But to comply with it, victorious England would have had to hand over the keys to Gibraltar and of Suez."

FRANCE, ENGLAND AGREE ON PACT, THEN SEE BERLIN

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, July 27.—Instead of replying to the last German note on the security pact with another note, the French government has decided to submit a draft of the actual pact to Berlin, and M. Fromageot, a French jurist, is now drawing up a draft in London with the advice of Sir Cecil Hirst of the foreign office. The two governments will thereby reach a complete agreement between themselves in detail before further negotiations with Germany. The pact will apparently be in two parts, England only guaranteeing the Rhine frontier and strictly keeping its hands off the eastern frontier question.

CHARGE HOFFMAN REFUSES TO ACT ON ROADHOUSES

Church Body Attacks Hawthorne Bets.

Chicago's crime conditions in general, roadhouses on highways leading into the city in particular, and lack of law enforcement by city and county officials were severely condemned yesterday in two instances by church people of the city.

Betting at the Hawthorne race track was included in the category of negligences chalked up against the officials, while the Bohrer bill, providing for fines and imprisonment for roadhouse keepers operating without a license outside the limits of the city, was declared a useless weapon against offenders, in its present form.

At a meeting at headquarters of the Chicago Church Federation, in the Chicago Temple, presided over by the Rev. Philip Yarrow, Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman was repeatedly censured because of his alleged failure to act against the roadhouses.

Vote to Protest to Hoffman.

Motion was passed providing that a large delegation of church people call upon him to protest against these places, which were declared to be flourishing in large numbers throughout the county.

C. J. Davis, secretary of the Better Government association, was outspoken in his denunciation of what he declared to be the inactivity of the sheriff in the matter. He mentioned a similar delegation that had waited upon Mr. Hoffman last fall, at which time the members were told that such action would be taken at the earliest possible time. He quoted a report made to the association by Sheriff Hoffman since that date, of arrests made and fines imposed, which Mr. Davis declared was ridiculous in the face of the large number of men employed on the force of the sheriff, and the yearly expenditures for salaries in his office. Chamberlain Says Crime Unchecked. Col. Henry B. Chamberlain, director of the Chicago Crime commission, asserted in yesterday's issue of the Dispatch, an Episcopal publication, that crime in Chicago is beyond control and demands the attention of all churches and bodies interested in civic betterment.

"Chicago's crime problem is unsolved," he wrote. "It's murder record is more than one a day. Robberies are committed almost at will. Neither life nor property is safe. This is the biggest civic problem of today. It can be solved only when citizens make clear to the law enforcing authorities that they must solve it in accordance with their sworn duty, or give way to other officials who will. "I am not talking of city or county administrations, but of all the officials who collectively constitute the machinery established by the law for the enforcement of justice, including the police, the prosecutors, the judges, and all the administrative officers who have to do with crime."

HOUSE BREAKER BEATS WOMAN. After breaking into the home of Mrs. Johnson, 35, of 556 East Seventy-fourth street, an unidentified man attacked and robbed her of $4 and escaped.

Believe Chicagoan Killed Mysteriously in Vancouver

A man believed by the police to be Volney B. Richardson of this city died yesterday of injuries suffered Friday at Vancouver, B. C. He was found unconscious on a street there. The cause of his injuries was unexplained. Richardson lived at Le Grand hotel, 400 North Wells street, here, and it was said he left a week ago, presumably to attend a fraternal conclave in Seattle. He was a marine fireman.

What's Wrong With Shorthand?

Secretaries say:—
"Those awful waits while he chats over the 'phone!'"
"Nothing doing until 3, then two days' work."
"He talks so fast, I'll be getting writer's cramp soon."
"No one else can read my notes."
"Shorthand is nothing to boast of."
"I've no time to show initiative!"
"I'm 10% secretary and 90% slave to my notebook."
That's enough! I'll send in this coupon right now.

How much earlier can a man clean up his desk when he uses The Dictaphone than when he clings to old-fashioned shorthand dictation?

Answer: Ask Mr. Harvey, for example. (See coupon below.)

"An hour, at least," Mr. Harvey says—others say more! Mr. Harvey admits that with shorthand, summer always meant frantic, last-minute dictation, with one eye on his watch—trying to clean up his desk before train time. An hour off one day usually meant keeping his secretary an hour overtime the next. "With The Dictaphone," he says, "I can get away early any day without hurrying. In fact, I'm having such an easy time this summer, that when my turn comes I'll be ready for a real vacation—not merely a rest!" Miss Lang also finds summer made easier by The Dictaphone. No hurried last-minute note-taking, no overtime and no cold notes to tackle in the morning! When Mr. Harvey's dictation is heavy, she can ask the other girls to help her with the extra cylinders.

If you want to know more about how The Dictaphone helped Mr. Harvey—and others—use the coupon below.

FRENCH PLANES RAZE RIFF TOWN AT PRAYER HOUR

Homeless Tribesmen Rue Joining Revolt.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, July 27.—By The Chicago Tribune. In the heart of Beni Zeroual there is much sorrow. Since noon yesterday the little village of Beni Zeroual, with its old mosque, Marabout tomb, tiled fountain, and water wheels, grist mill, and a few market place, and 800 flat-roofed, white-walled houses, has been razed to the ground.

War came to Beni Zeroual yesterday from the sky and tonight on the surrounding hills children cry, women weep, and old men facing eastward at evening prayer prostrate themselves in the dust, begging Allah for forgiveness for the day which led their peaceful village into an alliance with Abd-el Krim. The Beni Zerouals were loyal to France, living under conditions of peaceful administration until Krim's forces forced them to fight on their side.

Threaten Local Tribes.

We have beaten the Spanish. We have beaten the French. We will beat the French and remove Moulay Yousef from the sultanate at Fez, and we are strong enough to beat and kill you and take your women and children as slaves unless you join with us against the white unbelievers who defile the hills and plains Allah gave us," was the threat.

The threat came at a moment when the French troops were elsewhere. The tribe gave in before the armed menace from the north. Krim's agents took 500 young warriors from the tribe as hostages. Rifian officers, supported by hostages from other tribes, occupied the land, harvested and confiscated the crops, took horses and mules, and killed cattle, while continuing to push the war south against the hard pressed line of French block houses along the Ouergha river.

Ten days ago the tide changed. The French took the initiative. Occasional

BOMB VILLAGE

Twenty French planes raze village in vicinity of Zeroual. Tide of battle has now turned in favor of French, and instead of files of French prisoners Moorish wounded are making their way to north. Tribesmen begin to rue joining revolt against French.

Lines of French prisoners going north in chains gave place to moaning lines of Berber and Moorish wounded, struggling to fly before the sudden outbreak of the French offensive. The mountain trails back from the front all led through Beni Zeroual. The fleeing warriors poured in by the thousands, and Krim's brother, Mohammed Ben Abdel Krim, who is grand vizier and chief of staff for the self-assumed sultan of Adjer, came to call a council of the chiefs and to discuss their giving way before the French, insisting on their return to their battle positions.

Over the council of war this morning appeared more than twenty French airplanes. It was the hour of the first prayer, when the muezzin of the lower mosque was calling on the faithful to perform the first religious duties of the day.

As the call came from the tower the bombs were dropped from the sky, hundreds of them, containing hundreds of pounds of death dealing slugs and explosives. Consternation reigned throughout the town and streets. Warriors rushed from the houses and looked to the sky and then rushed indoors again. Cries and screams rose from all sides.

Falls in Market.

A missile falling in the center of the animal market among the crowded stalls, and dozens changed the market immediately into a bedlam of plunging, kicking, terror-stricken animals, and splashed the pallid white walls with red. Soldiers manned the roof tops and towers, bravely returning the fire of the planes, which continued to circle around the village dropping bombs.

Raid Reds in Paris.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) PARIS, July 27.—Following a midnight police conference with government officials the headquarters of the communists were raided at 8 o'clock this morning and a large amount of anti-Morocco war propaganda was seized, as were also papers indicating the central committee was planning a meeting for tonight to launch an intensified campaign of pacifism. Thousands of post cards were discovered showing groups of French officers standing beside a table on which were the decapitated heads of Rifians and containing the inscription: "French civilization in Morocco—12,000 killed and 4,000,000 wasted. Workers and farmers gave all that—see what for."

ROB FIE COMPANY OF $25.

Two robbers entered the office of the Sun-kist Pie company, 2735 Indiana avenue, late yesterday afternoon and threatened the cashier, Miss Agnes Peterson of 2700 South Green street, with revolvers. They snatched with $25 and drove for $200 more.

ANOTHER SEIZED AND CONFESSES AS SHAPIRO AID

A sixth man was arrested yesterday as a member of the Jack Shapiro gang of express robbers and confessed. He is Leonard Russel, 908 South Winchester avenue, named by one of his accomplices as the actual slayer of George Pugliese, in a holdup in Blue Island April 17.

Russel was arrested at Milwaukee after policemen had surrounded him in a house and thrown in tear bombs. After being brought back to Chicago last night he admitted that he had aided Shapiro and his companions in three robberies of American Express company shipments, taking loot which totaled $40,000.

Russel also confessed that he was implicated in the seizure of jewelry valued at $35,000 from the office of Philip Altschul on May 26. He admitted the shooting of Pugliese.

Shapiro was arraigned yesterday before Judge Thomas J. Lynch and his bonds were reduced to $15,000. Early this morning he gave bond and was released.

BUY CHICAGO ACRES

This Land Will Be a Part of Greater Chicago Tomorrow and Will Pay You Big Profits on Every Foot You Buy. Read This Carefully and You Will See How You Can Profit by the Growth of Chicago

Half Acres $250

$40 DOWN :: $5 A MONTH

These beautiful homesites are located on rapid transportation 40 minutes from the loop. Near schools, stores and churches and in the path of great future development. We also have

LARGE HOMESITES $875 TERMS, 5-Acre Tracts on $350 PER ACRE
(100 ft. by 300 ft.) $10 a Month stone road facing full section line $350 Terms $18 a Month
Water, stone roads and electric included

All Titles Guaranteed by the Chicago Title and Trust Co.

This is the way to make money. You can live on this land now and pay for it with your rent money; or you can cultivate it and make money by raising fruits, poultry and vegetables. Every half acre contains four city lots and every acre eight city lots and every 5-acre tract 40 city lots. Tomorrow you should be able to cut up this land into city lots and each lot should sell for as much as you now pay for an acre. In the last few years hundreds of our purchasers have made big money by the increasing values of their land, which was bought with a few dollars down, balance like rent.

The other day one of our customers, who paid $1,850 for five acres of land a few years ago, sold a lot off his piece, 100x150 feet, for $8,000, and still has over 4 1/2 acres left. Property we sold a few years ago at $20 a front foot is now selling from $150 to $250 a front foot. Acres on the Northwest Side that sold a few years ago for $800 are now selling for as much per lot as the purchasers originally paid for an acre. You can do as well. You can make money in the same way that these people made their money, and you need only a few dollars to start with.

BELGIUM'S DEBT COMMISSION TO ARRIVE AUG. 4TH

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Following the announcement of the Belgian commission expected on August 4, a meeting of the American commission has been called for two days later, it was stated at the treasury department today.

SECRETARY MELLON.

Secretary Mellon, chairman of the American commission, now on vacation at Southampton, L. I., is expected here on Wednesday of next week; Secretary Hoover, who is in California, and Representative Burton, who has been in Europe, and all the other members of the body with the exception of Representative Clegg, who is in the far east, are expected in time for next week's meeting.

It is not believed the Belgian negotiations will require more than ten days.

BELGIANS ASSAIL U. S.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BRUSSELS, July 27.—The Belgian press continues its propaganda campaign against the United States for claiming the Belgian war debt on the ground that the late President Woodrow Wilson pledged the Brussels government during the Paris peace conference in 1919 that Germany would defray all Belgium's foreign indebtedness.

Today the newspaper Nation Belge publishes a long first page article from its Paris correspondent depicting how numerous American citizens are Americanizing the French capital, establishing a colony, maintaining three American newspapers, encroaching on banking and business, and crowding out the use of French as the language, substituting "American."

"Such immigration ought to be impossible for them, as they have limited the number of foreigners they admit," says the correspondent. "On the street corners newboys yell American newspapers, which, with the high cost of paper, composition, and cable dispatches, represent considerable expense."

Charges U. S. Imperialism.

The article states the activities of the American colony in Paris proves the ambition of the United States to exploit Europe and reveals the nationalism and imperialism of America, which is seeking to seize the economic interests of the country, supporting and defending its position with newspapers and a colony of American citizens.

DELAYS ACTION ON BUSES FOR NEW BOULEVARD

Bus service on the new South Park Way probably will not be established before the first of next summer, Edward B. Sullivan, public relations director of the Chicago Motor Coach company, announced yesterday.

"Our Michigan boulevard lines are serving the south shore district adequately now," Mr. Sullivan said. "We do not feel that there will be sufficient demand to warrant buses on the Park Way until the opening of the rush season next year."

To obtain a permit to use the new lake shore route it will be necessary for the bus company to petition the Illinois Commerce commission.

Were You a June Bride?

June brides, like brides of other months or other years, soon learn that hubby is pleased, not so much with the main dish of the meal as those served with it—that personal touch shown in their selection.

First among such dishes is the salad. A salad can be no better than the dressing. The one dressing that is the unanimous choice of men, is a French dressing. It is the one dressing that many men pride themselves upon their ability to mix—and some of them can—so if you would please hubby you will serve a French dressing.

You can serve a French dressing that will be good every time, if you serve Milani's. It is a real French dressing; one made without any admixture of eggs, mayonnaise, or other ingredients not truly a part of a French dressing. Milani's French Dressing is the secret recipe of that famous Italian chef, Luigi Milani, who even yet supervises in person its manufacture, and this secret recipe has been in the Milani family for more than 80 years, that's why you cannot buy a French dressing that quite equals Milani's.

In Milani's French Salad Dressing there is an appetite-provoking something that you do not find in others—even your own—and it is that pleasing tang and savor that makes it the choice of the discriminating taste.

You will find Milani's French Dressing at your dealer's, but you should look for the Milani name on the label. For like many other best products, it is imitated to a point of resemblance in appearance where even your dealer can make a mistake.

Another fact that makes Milani's French Dressing superior to all others is that it serves equally as well as a sauce for meat, game and fish as it does for salads, in fact, it is preferred by many to the sauces sold purely for such use.

Saving Has Become Fashionable

An old customer, with a humorous quirk to his lips, said to one of our officers the other day: "I see it's the fashion again to save."

"What do you mean?"

"Oh, I've just been listening to a group of young people talk. One couldn't buy a car because he was saving for a house; one had to have a car because his business needed it, and he was cutting down his pocket money to save for the car. One of the young wives was doing her own housework to save for a home, and the other one was keeping close tab on her entertainment money to save for the baby's education. They weren't apologizing, either. They were open and matter-of-fact about it. I guess," he finished, "if saving's fashionable, we don't need to worry about the new generation."

There was a time after the war when reckless spending was the order of the day. But that period is past. Saving is again the fashion. This doesn't mean that young people are "pinching" money. But it does mean that they realize that the big worth-while possessions of life—a home, education for the children, a business of one's own, or an income for later years—can't be acquired if one spends the whole day's salary on the day's living. So now they are saying frankly that they want the big things, and that they will do without the little things to get the big ones.

If you have any difficulty in adjusting your living expenses so that you can buy the things you want, come in and let our Service Station help you plan a way.

CASEY, WRIGHT UPSET IN MEET AT SEABRIGHT

Seabright, N. J., July 27.—(AP)—For the first time in two years, Casey, Wright and their team, with two exceptions, stroked their way to victory today in the men's singles in the Seabright tournament.

For the first time in two years, Casey, Wright and their team, with two exceptions, stroked their way to victory today in the men's singles in the Seabright tournament.

Vincent Richards of Berkeley, Cal., national and Olympic champion, losing to Wright before it was over, and Casey, who was working their way through easily, working their way to the final.

Casey, Wright Beaten.

The two upsets today in the Seabright tournament, Casey of San Francisco, one of America's representatives in the English championships at Wimbledon this year, and Jack Wright of the Seabright team, who had won the national championship and holder with Willard Crockett of the doubles title of the tournament.

Yale's tennis captain, Arnold Jones, ended the Seabright play of Casey, Wright, who had won the national championship and holder with Willard Crockett of the doubles title of the tournament.

There were other matches which bordered on upsets, including the defeat of Watson M. Washburn of New York at the hands of A. H. Chapin, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., 6-4, 7-5, the defeat of Nathaniel W. Niles of Boston, by Hugh Kelleher of New York, 7-5, 6-2, and the battle which Herbert L. Bowman of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the Seabright team, the latter winning, 6-3, 1-4, 6-3.

Holman Fails Out Wright.

It was a youngster from Leland, Stanford University, Stanford Holman, who had won the progress of Wright. After losing the first set, 3-6, Holman rallied and overpowered his Canadian rival by a fierce smashing, driving game, which carried Wright before it was over, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1.

There were other matches which bordered on upsets, including the defeat of Watson M. Washburn of New York at the hands of A. H. Chapin, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., 6-4, 7-5, the defeat of Nathaniel W. Niles of Boston, by Hugh Kelleher of New York, 7-5, 6-2, and the battle which Herbert L. Bowman of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the Seabright team, the latter winning, 6-3, 1-4, 6-3.

Hawkes, Anderson Win.

The other two members of the official Australian cup team won their matches with ease, J. B. Hawkes eliminating Lieut. Edgar W. Garbisch, Jr., of Chicago, 6-1, while James O. Anderson defeated Percy L. Kynaston of Rockville Center, N. Y., 6-4, 6-1.

Play in the women's singles went according to the book, not an upset.

Studding the first round, Miss Mary Z. Jessup, Miss Mary K. Browne, Miss Martha Bayard, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan winning their way into the third round.

MRS. GILLETTE LOW IN COUNTY GOLF MEET

Mrs. C. O. Gillette of the Ridge Country club shot an 81 over the Jackson park golf course yesterday and was low medalist of the field of women golfers who played the qualifying rounds in the women's Cook county championship tournament.

Mrs. Gillette went out in 41 and made the incoming nine in 40.

Forty-five players entered the first flight of the championship.

Of them there were thirty-four who had scores of 95 or better. Thirty-two were to qualify for the match play that begins this morning.

Five players had scores of 95 and four of them were sent out on an extra hole to decide which three should be permitted in the match play.

Mrs. Magner Eliminated.

The five who had cards of 95 were: Mrs. A. J. Magner of Jackson park, Mrs. L. Hayes of Jackson park, Mrs. R. Zoch of Edgemoor, Mrs. M. H. of Marquette park, and Mrs. P. P. Flaherty.

Mrs. Magner could not be located at tea time, so was eliminated.

Of the other four, Mrs. Flaherty was finally eliminated.

Women's par at Jackson park is 78. Mrs. Gillette's 81 was but three strokes above it and good enough to insure great admiration among the many golfers in the gallery who followed her.

Her tee shots were straight. Her approach work was good and her putting was also good.

In this field are the adult champions of tomorrow. They are the youngsters who will be writing golf history in another year or two.

Altogether some of their names are becoming known to the golfing public.

So the quality of golf to be exhibited at Big Oaks will be worthy of the attention of the most exacting critic.

Preliminaries Today.

Today at 10 a. m. golfers will be playing. Thirty-two youngsters will be allowed to enter the championship flight match play. There will be second and third flights and consolation flights, but it is the group of thirty-two youngsters that will hold the attention of the western golfing world for the moment.

Among the youngsters who will probably shine in this tournament are: Dorothy Page, 16-year old girl from Madison, who has the best record for the Blue Mounds, Kenosha, was next in line for high honors.

Miss Bernice Wall, Oshkosh, defending her title, made a good showing in the first round, but was defeated by Miss Frances Hatfield and Miss Virginia Gittens, considered strong contenders.

Qualifying rounds will be played tomorrow, match play opening on Wednesday.

MAY HELP CUBS

South Bend, Ind., July 27.—(Special.)—Another Notre Dame man joins the coaching staff at Loyola in Chicago.

Bill Cerney, a football star who was robbed of much of his fame because of a bad knee, has been placed on a team with the first flight of the championship.

He will report in September to Roger Kiley, head coach, who also got his athletic training under Rockne.

Cerney will coach football only and will come back here at the close of the season, where he now is in the real estate business.

Cerney was in at full back often with the lightning back field when Layden was playing, and was one of the mainstays of Rockne's storm troops, who started every game last year.

DOROTHY KLOTZ
EASTERN GOLF

New London, Conn., July 27.—(Special.)—Unfavorable weather conditions attended the opening today of the seventh annual women's invitation golf tournament on the Shenectady Country club links.

Two hundred and forty entrants took off for the qualifying round.

After the closest kind of a contest it was necessary to play off a five-cornered tie before the first flight could be made up. There was room for only four or five players, who had each turned in a score of 91.

In the play off Miss Dorothy Klotz, Chicago, made a four on the first hole.

Mrs. J. J. Thompson, Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Charles A. Downey, Springfield, Mass., made five.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd and Mrs. Jay Lee took six more strokes each. They both had a five on the second hole, but Mrs. Hurd by a brilliant putt won the third with a birdie.

Low score honors for the opening day went to Miss Glenna Collett, who made the round in 78. Miss Maureen Orcutt, eastern champion, was next with an 81.

Wray Brown, St. Louis, present singles titleholder, made an auspicious start this morning when he defeated J. D. Ringwalt, Omaha, 6-2, 6-0.

I. C. Brian Norton, St. Louis, had a little difficulty with Joseph Ivy, Kansas City, but won his match in straight sets, however, 6-2, 6-4.

Harris Cogswell, Des Moines, Ia., singles champion, defeated a fellow townsman, Lyman Grayson, 6-0, 6-1.

Berkley Bell, Aurora, Ill., defeated a fellow townsman, best Walcott Watrous, Des Moines, 6-0, 6-3.

AUTO HURRYING AMERICAN HORSE TO RACE SUICIDE

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
York, Neb., July 27.—[Special.]—The decline in horse population following the shift to the automobile, the truck and the tractor is now causing some cogitation in the rural regions. In 1918 there were 21,500,000 horses in the country, now there are 17,500,000.

One of the semi-pathetic spectacles of modernism is that of an elderly nag out in the pasture, his head poking over the barbed wire fence contemplating the trucks as they roar down the concrete with forty or fifty "horses" snoring under the hood. Right now there is much dispute over how far the gas engine will crowd old Dobbin off the map.

There are about 10 per cent fewer horses and mules on farms than there were in 1920, while the average age is considerably greater, and 43 per cent of all horses on farms are over ten years old and only 11 per cent

GEN. PATRICK MADE ARMY AVIATION CHIEF FOR FOUR MORE YEARS

Washington, D. C., July 27.—(AP)—The war department has chosen Maj. Gen. Mason M. Patrick for reappointment as chief of the air service and Maj. Gen. Eli A. Helmick as inspector general, for another four years.

Brig. Gen. Johnson Hagood, now at Fort Totten, N. Y., and Brig. Gen. William D. Connor, in command of American forces in China, will be made major generals.

under four years of age. The number of ancient and venerable stock is growing while colt production has fallen perceptibly and in 1924 only half as many were foaled as in 1919. Meanwhile the average value of horses per head has dropped from about $97 five years ago to $83 now. In Missouri there are only 738,000 horses today as against 908,000 last year and the average value is $46. In Kansas the horse population was approximately a million four years ago, now it is below $50,000, with 525,000 tractors in use on farms and automobiles and trucks by the million.

Some authorities, arguing from the figures, think the country on the verge of a horse shortage, and the United States department of agriculture early in the year forecast that an acute shortage is likely during the time colts foaled this year are still in active service. So far, however, horse breeders in general have not been impressed enough to start breeding on any extended scale.

But Farmers Are Contented.

Farmers in general say the horse will never be fully supplanted by engine power, but the cards are stacked against the horse. In some sections in Kansas and Nebraska and Missouri some breeders are reported to be increasing the breeding of high grade animals, looking to a possible profit in the next two or three years, but the movement as yet is not extensive. Meantime the farmers in Kansas and Nebraska, as in Illinois, are registering equanimity and contentment. The betterment of the farm and the farm house, particularly in the last five or six years, is noticeable everywhere—it is nothing short of tremendous.

OFFICIAL DEATH OF GRAIN CO-OP COMES TODAY

The Grain Marketing company will not pay the $4,000,000 put up a year ago by the four companies forming the big grain merger, and which is due today. Instead the company is liquidating its affairs as fast as possible. This was announced yesterday by John T. Cloverdale, secretary-treasurer of the concern.

The $24,000,000 farmers' co-operative company has been unscrambled. All the four components have taken back their elevator properties and are operating them independently. The last to reenter the grain market as individual operators was the Rosenbaum Grain corporation, which began buying cash grain on the Board of Trade yesterday. The $400,000 cash held for stockholders of the marketing company has been returned, each getting 100 per cent, it is said. It was said by an official yesterday that nearly all the cash grain on hand has been disposed of, but that several months will be required to wind up the company's affairs. Sufficient farmers have not put up the $1 per share to make the big grain merger, which was to be a co-operative concern. It was understood that, less than $500,000 of stock was sold to farmers, and the cost of selling that was heavy.

TEACHERS RESENT MOVE TO CURB THEIR ABSENCES

Protests of Chicago teachers against a proposal by Supt. William McAndrew to restrict their absence privileges as suggested by Griffenhagen and associates, school auditors, are expected to create a stir at a meeting of the rules committee of the board of education this afternoon. Chief among the objections is the Chicago Teachers' federation.

In a recent report, Griffenhagen's accountants stated the teachers' absences were costing the board $1,000,000 annually, partly through the abuse of lenient regulations. McAndrew's revised code would "dock" teachers, according to their pay scale and allow him to place on the unassigned list teachers absent without leave more than ten days.

Live in Luxury in Sunny Florida

ONCE the rich man's playground. Now the poor man's paradise. That's Florida!

On Fort Pierce Farms you can gain a luxurious living from a few acres of inexpensive land. A trifling investment will make you rich in comfort, rich in health and eventually rich in money.

Even if you can't come immediately, buy NOW on Fort Pierce Farms against future advances. This land should soon treble in value. If you wish you can have your property cultivated at actual cost, plus a small commission. Thus it will yield handsome returns without effort or worry on your part.

You can live in your shirt sleeves the year 'round on Fort Pierce Farms. Its climate is always delightful; 79.9° is the average annual temperature. Here you can enjoy surf bathing in midwinter, or go fishing, hunting or motoring. The great outdoors invites you all the year.

Fort Pierce Farms adjoin the proposed town of Indrio, 60 miles north of Palm Beach on the Dixie Highway. Indrio is soon to become the most beautiful of all Florida's resorts. Parks, golf courses and palm shaded drives are even now being laid out.

Enjoy a Yearly Income of $5,000 to $10,000!

The world's finest and costliest citrus fruits are grown on Fort Pierce Farms and adjoining property. Enormous crops of prize vegetables are also grown here and shipped to Northern markets at fancy prices.

The possibilities for profit on Fort Pierce Farms are almost unbelievable to Northern farmers. $5,000 a year from 20 acres—$10,000 from 40 acres—these are typical examples. Our illustrated book, which the coupon brings FREE, proves that many owners of land on Fort Pierce Farms are now making as much and more! Some of them were business men, with no farming knowledge whatever.

On Fort Pierce Farms there is no short growing season—no weather uncertainties to contend with. Florida farmers raise bumper crops with a fraction of the effort required in the North. Living expenses are very moderate; taxes exceedingly low. Confiscatory state income and inheritance levies are prohibited forever by constitutional amendment.

Values are Rocketing Buy NOW at Less than Worth

Florida property values are rocketing, as you know. Those who buy NOW on Fort Pierce Farms should soon see their land soar in value.

Based on what this land will produce, it is worth two or three times what we ask. Experienced judges of Florida property believe it will shortly treble in value.

Why do we offer it at less than its worth? Simply to attract land users to Fort Pierce Farms. Once the Northern farmer and salaried man begins to comprehend the opportunities which await him here, there will be a rush of settlers that will send prices sky high.

These are the people we want on Fort Pierce Farms. We want to colonize this property—not exploit it. Hence we have set a price so low that most anyone who seriously seeks independence can now attain it.

In justice to ourselves, the present low introductory price can't be continued indefinitely. An increase of at least 33 1/3% may be announced almost any day. Protect yourself against it—buy NOW on easy terms.

ASSAULTS BIG FEE VOTED FOR KATY REORGANIZATION

I. C. C. Member Dissents; Argues for Economy.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—[Special.]—Allowance by the interstate commerce commission today of $1,500,000 for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad company reorganization fees was denounced in a dissenting opinion by Commissioner Joseph B. Eastman. The reorganization plan provided a basis of compensation that would have yielded $2,544,548 for the managers and their counsel. Commissioner Eastman declared the bankers and lawyers were not entitled to more than half this amount.

J. & W. Bellman & Co. and Hallgarten & Co., bankers of New York City, were the reorganization managers, and the counsel were Gravath, Henderson & De Gersdorff and Larkin, Rathbone & Ferry of New York City.

The commission found that the compensation of the reorganization managers should be $900,000 and that the fee of their counsel should be $600,000. In addition to Commissioner Eastman, Commissioners Campbell and McManis dissented.

Significance was attached to the decision because reorganization of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul will be passed on by the commission soon. "Certainly the affairs of sick or dying corporations have become a most profitable field of exploitation for bankers and lawyers," declared Commissioner Eastman.

"Such a situation challenges attention," Mr. Eastman continued, "particularly where the corporations are engaged in public service. In such cases, at least, the public interest is directly involved."

He asked why two leading banking houses and two leading firms of lawyers were necessary when one banking house and one firm of lawyers would have sufficed.

Calls Work Public Trust.

The commissioner added it was his opinion that "where, can and should be taken to decrease materially the expense of administering and reorganizing the affairs of bankrupt or financially disabled corporations engaged in the public service." He said the reorganization managers and counsel should not be allowed in the aggregate more than $1,200,000 in the M. K. & T. case, adding that this should not be considered as his opinion that "future reorganizations of like character should reasonably cost as much as the above amount."

"Professional services rendered in connection with the rehabilitation of such corporations ought, I think, be regarded in the light of work done in the administration of a public trust and compensation therefor should be held to the minimum point," he concluded.

ARMENIAN HELD TO BE ELIGIBLE TO CITIZENSHIP

Portland, Ore., July 27.—[AP.]—Armenians are eligible to naturalization as American citizens, Federal Judge C. E. Wolverton decided today in the noted Cartosian case. The decision was a victory for the Asia Minor people.

As the proceeding was a test case, it is expected the government will appeal to the United States Supreme court.

The federal government had sued for annulment of the naturalization papers of Tatos C. Cartosian, member of a local firm of rug dealers. The government's contention was that Armenians are of Asiatic descent and therefore not eligible to naturalization.

Judge Wolverton held that they are white persons, as commonly recognized in speech of common usage and as popularly interpreted in this country when the law regarding naturalization was adopted by congress. The time element was an important feature.

BRITAIN LOOSENS QUOTA ON RUBBER AFTER U. S. PLEAS

Orders Release of 6,000 Tons.

By JOHN STEELE.

[Copyright, 1925, By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, July 27.—Quick action has followed America's protest against the rationing of raw rubber by the federated Malay state government under a scheme which has the authority of a British act of parliament. A. Ormsby-Gore, undersecretary of colonies, announced today in the house of commons that the Malay government would release 6,000 tons of rubber at the request of the British government. About the beginning of August the British government is likely to authorize release of an additional 10 per cent of the normal production, which is the amount America has asked.

Makes Friendly Concession.
The American intervention is altogether unofficial and the British action is a friendly concession. Britain rationed rubber because prices recently have fallen so low as to make rubber growing unprofitable.

Secretary of State Kellogg, in sending his memorandum to Ambassador Alanson B. Houghton on the subject, was careful to mark it: "For your information," and Mr. Houghton when he discussed the matter with Austin Chamberlain merely stated the American viewpoint, making no demand and stating no claim.

Would Strangle U. S. Trade.
America's view, briefly, is that the present restriction on the rubber output meant ruin for a large part of the American trade, which now consumes 70 per cent of the world's rubber, and unemployment for 250,000 American workers. It would divert the minds of the manufacturers, who are now trying to devise new uses for rubber, to the provision of a substitute and to entering the production field themselves eventually becoming competitors of the British grower. It also is a fact that the restriction might inspire some rubber consumers in the United States to appeal to congress for retaliation against Britain in cases of products like cotton.

The British automobile manufacturers and users today set up a concerted protest against the price of rubber. The tire makers are demanding a drastic revision of the restriction on the production of rubber, saying the law is stifling the home industry.

ROB TAXI DRIVER.
Joseph Telock, 5645 South Mozart street, a taxi driver, was robbed of $14 yesterday by three men who held him up in front of 7645 South Wabash avenue.

And then The Blackstone summoned EDISON SERVICE

A WATER main burst under Michigan Avenue. The eager flood rolled into the basement of The Blackstone and swamped the power plant—the great steam and electric generating plant that cost $100,000! Upstairs, things that should go began to stop. The elevators wouldn't operate... the signals went dark... lights blinked out and fans ceased to whirl. Edison Service was available at the very doors of The Blackstone and, in an incredibly short time, the giant power lines of Chicago's central station were tapped. Over new wires the power began to flow and every room in this great hotel had light and all electrical equipment was in steady operation. It continues so today.

Edison Service is dependable service—constant, adequate, silent, clean and economical.

WHEAT DECIDES WHETHER HEDGING; CORN IS HIGHER

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Barish sentiment continues to predominate among wheat traders, and while Liverpool closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher, on less favorable weather in Europe, at no time were local prices more than a fraction above Saturday's finish and the close was at net losses of 1/4 to 1/2. Corn showed independent strength and gained 1/4 to 1/2 in the face of scattered rains over part of the main belt. Oats were 1/4 to 1/2 lower and 1/4 to 1/2 lower.

An outstanding feature in the wheat market was the lack of outside interest, a part of which was claimed to be due to recent statements regarding speculation by government officials. Sufficient hedging pressure appears from time to time to bring about a temporary decline in the price of wheat, but the market is easily influenced by relatively small orders either way.

Surplus in corn and wheat under the 1925-26 September by commission houses which checked the decline.

Claim Rust Damage in Canada. Claims that rust was developing rapidly in Manitoba was responsible for a strong rally at one time, but after the local shorts had covered, the market moved sharply downward, closing 1/4 to 1/2 lower for the day with no export demand of consequence.

An increase of 75,000 bu. in the visible supply was smaller than the 100,000 bu. reported, the total 2,574,000 bu. against 2,448,000 bu. last year. Receipts at terminal markets were also less than predicted last week, Chicago receiving only 432 cars. Primary markets were 1,150,000 bu. or 1,982,000 bu. less than last year. Supplies on ocean passage decreased 90,000 bu. for the week in the face of world's shipments of only 8,200,000 bu. the small reduction having some effect on quotations.

Raise Hops Crop Crop. Scattered showers were shown over parts of Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and other states by the detailed government report, being fairly heavy in many sections, but they failed to have much effect on the market, although the new crop will be benefited. Covering of a line of short December credited to a local operator with limited pressure made the advance easily attained.

Hedging pressure is increasing in oats and the market made a poor response to the strength in corn, averaging less than a cent. Rye held within narrow limits, and closed at intermediate figures. Trade was largely of a local character.

Provisions Close Lower. A sharp break in hog prices at the stock yards here was due to the anticipation values and with commission houses fair sellers last closed 1/4 to 1/2 lower with ribs off 1/2 to 1/2, and bellies 1/4 to 1/2. Deliveries on July contracts were 150,000 head. Prices follow:

Dayton, Tenn., July 28.—
The mountain people of east
Tennessee today paid last hom to William J. Bryan in simple services. The rites were he front yard of the home of Rogers, in which Mr. Bryan and in which he died.
Mourning stood on the law

magnolia tree. The hundre

Bryan requested that the coff

The services began with
